Disability Hate Crime

It is wrong for anyone to have prejudice or hostility for other people.

It is wrong for anyone to hurt you or make you feel unsafe.

It is wrong for anyone to take or harm your things.

It is wrong for anyone to treat you badly for who you are.

If anyone does any of these to you, because they do not like disabled people...

...this is a Disability Hate Crime

Disability

Someone may have a disability if they:

Find it hard to move around — Physical Disability

Do not see or hear, or find it hard to see or hear — Sensory Disability

Find it hard to learn some things — Learning Disability

Do not feel well in their minds at times — Mental Health

Tell someone. Report it.
