

Dr Robina Shah MBE DL JP CPsychol FRCGP(Hon) PhD SFHEA

Robina is a Consultant Chartered Psychologist and Professor of medical education and psychosocial medicine at the University of Manchester.

She has a specialist interest in disability hate crime and the wider aspects of healthcare services, policy and practice that relate to this area.