

Independent Member No1

This member was selected because of their wealth of experience in supporting faith communities and other victims of abuse. They have been a victim of hate crime and have received prolonged series of threatening abuse for standing up for the rights of others both in the UK and overseas. They do not represent any single group or organisation but bring victim experience and expertise to the group.