

Michael Whine MBE

Michael Whine is a non-affiliated member having represented the Community Security Trust, of which he was a co-founder and from which he has now retired, since the formation of the IAG in 2002. He is the UK Member of the European Commission against Racism and Intolerance (ECRI), which advises Council of Europe member states on human rights matters. He now also acts as Senior Consultant to the World Jewish Congress.

Between 2010 and 2012, he acted as Lay Advisor to the Counter Terrorism Division of the Crown Prosecution Service and in 2013, he was appointed to the Hate Crime Scrutiny and Involvement Panel of the London CPS. Since 2008, he has on occasions represented HMG at OSCE conferences and National Point of Contact on Hate Crime meetings. He was appointed MBE in the 2012 New Year Honours.