

Yasmin Rehman

Yasmin is an experienced professional with extensive knowledge, skills and abilities gained in the statutory and voluntary sectors in varied roles addressing violence against women and girls (VAWG), safeguarding adults and children and issues of faith, race and gender. She has facilitated and led innovative approaches to policy and partnership development with agencies in the UK, India, Pakistan, Sweden, Germany and South Africa.

Yasmin is currently the Chief Executive Officer at Juno Women's Aid